Audience questions are important.....any presentation. You can have two policies.....this issue. You may either allow the audience.....ask you questions anytime during the course..... your presentation or you may request your audience to hold questions.....the end. Questions are an excellent indicator.....the extent of involvement of the audience.....your presentation. If you choose the first option..... inviting the questions during the presentation, you will have the opportunity.....clarify doubts as you go along and ensure that your point has been understood. But if you save them.....the end you will get through the material uninterrupted. It is up to you.....make the decision. Whatever you do, make sure you stay.....time ! If your allotted time is 10 minutes, do not exceed it. This way you can make sure that the audience remains engaged.
